THE RECORDING ACADEMY®

Whether it's joining with music makers to ensure their creative rights are protected, providing ongoing professional development services to the recording community, or honoring the best music of the year through the internationally recognized GRAMMY Awards®, The Recording Academy has become the recording industry's primary organization for professional and educational outreach, human services, arts advocacy, and cultural enrichment.

The Academy represents members from all corners of the professional music world — from the biggest recording stars to unsung music educators — all brought together under the banner of building a better creative environment for music and its makers. Nowhere is this more symbolically represented than in the GRAMMY® Award, a true peer honor that recognizes excellence in the recording field and the premier music award worldwide.

For more information, call 310.392.3777 or visit www.grammy.com.

ENHANCE YOUR GRAMMY® EXPERIENCE

Enjoy free access to the official 57th GRAMMY Awards program book, the same book handed to the artists, performers and VIPs in the audience.

GRAMMY FOUNDATION® AND MUSICARES®

GRAMMY FOUNDATION®

MUSICARES FOUNDATION®

A portion of the proceeds from the 2015 GRAMMY® Nominees album will benefit MusiCares and the GRAMMY Foundation, two charitable organizations established by The Recording Academy® that help sustain music and its makers — past, present and future — as a force in all of our lives.

MusiCares provides emergency health and human services and addiction recovery resources to music people in times of need. The GRAMMY Foundation offers young people opportunities to explore careers in the music industry, leads efforts to preserve our musical legacy, and advances the understanding of music's role in our culture. In recognition of the significant influence teachers have in shaping their students' musical lives, the GRAMMY Foundation and The Recording Academy will present their second annual Music Educator Award™ to a current U.S. music teacher in 2015.

Thank you for your generous contribution. Visit www.musicares.org and www.grammyfoundation.org for more information.
